Job Purpose:

To actively support our core purpose, remembering that “We are here to make great schools and happier, stronger communities so that people have better lives.”

Responsible for providing students with high quality teaching and learning or targeted support when a member of staff is absent or unavailable.

Key Responsibilities: Specific

- Instruct and support students in relation to the work left by the teacher.
- Ensure students are provided with the necessary resources to facilitate learning. On occasions this may include locating missing or additional resources as required.
- Register and record student attendance in lessons, including lateness and absence and further ensuring the dissemination of important messages from other areas of the school.
- Answer students’ queries in relation to the instructions left by the teacher, ensuring that instructions are understood, encouraging peer mentoring where appropriate/necessary.
- Liaise with middle leaders in relation to work set by subject teachers as appropriate and maintaining a positive support network throughout each subject department.
- Use resources available within the school system to add to work left by teaching staff for the lesson, acquiring extra resources where necessary.
- Supervise the class for the duration of the lesson by:
 - ensuring positive behaviour is maintained.
 - encouraging and supporting the learning experience of the students
 - monitoring student behaviour, using the school behaviour policy as appropriate.
- Ensure the classroom is left tidy and ready for the next lesson after dismissing the class by:
 - Encouraging the students to take responsibility for their learning areas.
 - Encouraging students to support each other with the clearing up and packing away.
- Assist in establishing and maintaining good order within the school, including undertaking break and lunchtime duties as necessary including maintaining acceptable behaviour standards around the site, not just in the classroom
- Respond to, record and report incidents of inappropriate behaviour, in accordance with the school’s Behaviour Policy and associated procedures.
- Performing other such duties as reasonably correspond to the general character of the post and are commensurate with its level of responsibility including:
 - Providing additional staffing for educational trips and visits.
 - Providing administrative departmental support
- Support the coordination of cover arrangements, including cover arrangements for planned absences, reactive cover for unplanned absences, liaising with the Senior Leadership Team as required.
- Under the direction of the classroom teacher, support the planning process involved in delivering the curriculum, where required.

Key Responsibilities: General

The post holder will be required to act on their own initiative or on the authority delegated from their line manager or a member of the School/TEAL SLT.

The post holder will be expected to work within TEAL and the schools’ policies and procedures and uphold the organisation’s values and vision.

The job description is not intended to be a complete list of duties and responsibilities but details the major requirements of the post. It may be amended at a future time, to take account of the developing needs of TEAL. The post holder will undertake any other duties appropriate to the remit.

TEAL is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all employees and volunteers to share this commitment.

The Health and Safety at Work etc. Act, 1974 and other associated legislation places responsibility for Health and Safety on all employees, therefore it is expected that everyone takes reasonable care for their own health and safety and the health and safety of others.

The above duties may involve having access to information of a confidential nature, which may be covered by General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) 2018, and by Part 1 of Schedule 12A to the Local Government Act, 1972. Confidentiality must always be maintained and employees must work with and process personal and sensitive information in accordance with Data Protection Act 2018 including the GDPR. Employees must protect the safety and security of information (e.g. using strong passwords, reporting breaches, and ensuring information is stored and disposed of securely.

The key competencies and behaviours commensurate with this post are identified overleaf.
